

Research Report Planning Sheet

Paragraph 1: Introduction

Interest the reader in your science expo project.

Paragraph 2: Science

What are the scientific principles/laws you should know about? What are the key vocabulary words that scientist would use for this project?

Paragraph 3: History

Background information such as time of invention, inventor, designer of the principle, how it has been used throughout history, or what changes have been made.

Paragraph 4: Application

This is the reason this project is important to society. How can the information you find help other people?

Paragraph 5: Conclusion

Restate the main idea of each section of the paper and state your hypothesis.

Separate Page: Work Cited

Where you got your information from. You need at least 5 different sources. At least one source needs to be a book.

Use the website www.easybib.com to create a bibliography using MLA format.

Source 1:

Source 2:

Source 3:

Source 4:

Source 5: